THE PIONEERS (Jamaica)

Formed in the mid 60's in Kingston, Jamaica, they were one of the first groups to have international hits in the new music genre called Reggae which followed Ska and Rock Steady. They were able to penetrate the European market with one of their many renderings of race horse songs called "Long Shot Kick de Bucket". They followed up with a Jimmy Cliff penned song called "Let Your Yeah Be Yeah" which was a smash hit in Europe and Give and Take also by Jimmy Cliff.

This stalwart reggae group has had many successful tours around the world including Europe, Asia, North and South America and the Caribbean. Their works were covered by other international acts such as the Specials (Long Shot), Madness (Starvation), the Selecter (Time Hard), The Beat (Jackpot), and UB 40 (Starvation). In the summer of 2005, the Pioneers performed at the Maranhao Roots Reggae Festival in San Luis, Brazil before 15,000 fans along with Tribe de Jah.

Despite the fact that they have been pleasing fans for the past four decades, they remain young and vibrant and still look forward to a long and lustrous career run. Folkestone Ska Fest welcomes from Jamaica Jackie Robinson and George Dekker of THE PIONEERS and backed by Sidewalk Doctors.

ROY "MR SYMARIP" ELLIS (Jamaica)

Roy Ellis, also known as Mr. Symarip, was borned in Kingston, Jamaica, from mother Jamaican and American father. He was already brilliant as a ten-years old solo singer in the Children Gospel choir in the Baptist Church in Kingston (Jamaica). In his school-days he developed a strong friendship with Jimmy Cliff, and also Bob Marley belonged to his circle of friends.

When Roy started in showbusiness he was leading rhythm and blues & ska bands in the 60's like The Bees, The Seven Letters and The Pyramids but the success came with Symarip in 1969 selling over 7 millions of copies with the 'Skinhead Moonstomp' album for Trojan Records, introducing the Reggae sounds in UK and the rest of Europe.

Up to date he's still the artist who has sold the biggest number of records in Trojan Records, even more than others like Bob Marley or Jimmy Cliff.

Later in the 60's in England and central Europe he made himself with his giant voice an international name in the Ska, Reggae, Gospel, Blues, Soul scene. In 1966 he was discovered by the "Godfather of Ska", Laurel Aitken, who wrote 2 songs: 'Jesse James Rides Again' and 'Because I Love You', and also produced a bunch of other hits for them.

Symarip (also known at various stages of their career as The Bees, The Pyramids, Seven Letters and Zubaba) were a ska and reggae band from the United Kingdom, originating in the late 1960s, when Frank Pitter and Michael Thomas founded the band as The Bees. The band's name was originally spelled Simaryp, which is an approximate reversal of the word pyramids Consisting of members of West Indian descent, Simaryp is widely marked as one of the first skinhead reggae bands, being one of the first to target skinheads as an audience. Their hits included "Skinhead Girl", "Skinhead Jamboree" and "Skinhead Moonstomp", the latter of which was based on the Derrick Morgan song, "Moon Hop".

They moved to Germany in 1971, performing reggae and Afro-rock in Germany under the name Zubaba. In 1980, the single "Skinhead Moonstomp" was re-issued in the wake of the 2 Tone craze, hitting #54 on the UK Singles Chart. The band officially split in 1985 after releasing the album Drunk & Disorderly as The Pyramids.

Folkestone Ska Fest welcomes ROY "MR SYMARIP" ELLIS and The Moonstompers. Plus guest Roddy Radiation Byers.

WINSTON FRANCIS (Jamaica)

Born in Kingston in 1948, Francis served an apprentice as a printer before relocating to Miami at the age of 16. He attended music school, and his teacher Chuck Bird arranged for him to perform with the Jackie Gleason Orchestra in front of Spiro Agnew in 1965. He then joined Carlos Malcolm's Afro Jamaicans band, with whom he toured the USA and the Caribbean. He was also a member of The Sheridans (with Pat Kelly) and The Mellotones. In the late 1960s he recorded as a solo artist for Clement "Coxsone" Dodd's Studio One label, with his debut album Mr. Fix-It released in 1969. This was followed by a second album, California Dreaming in 1971, with the title track released as a single and chosen as 'Hit Pick of the Week' for two weeks running by Tony Blackburn on his BBC Radio 1 show. The single's B-side, "Too Experienced", featured backing vocals from Bob Marley and Bunny Wailer. He relocated to the UK that year. He toured the UK club circuit and recorded for EMI in the 1970s.

After a period of inactivity, Francis returned to recording in the early 1980s, releases including the Roy Cousins-produced Just Once and the self-produced Africa. After a break from music when he worked as a youth worker and social worker, he returned in 1987 as a backing vocalist for The Melodians and began working with Trevor Star and the Skaticians. He continued to record in the 1990s, working with Dennis Bovell under the name King Cool, and releasing Ragga Love and Sweet Rock Steady, and guested on Kelly's 1995 album Butterflies.[2] His version of Ben E King's "Stand by Me" was a hit in France, selling over 90,000 copies, leading to work with Sly & Robbie and John Kpiaye. In 2003 he teamed up with fellow veteran AJ Franklin to record the album Stand Firm. In 2004 he released the medley album Feel Good All Over.

Folkestone Ska Fest welcomes WINSTON FRANCIS and backed by The Skamanians from France

JUDGE DREAD MEMORIAL BAND (Holland)

GET READY.. The Judge Dread Memorial Band are "Flo" Florian Strober & The Upsessions from Amsterdam, Holland. They have been playing and touring the European circuit for a few years but now are here in the UK at Folkestone Ska Fest and Judge Dread's home county of Kent to give homage to Judge Dread. When Judge Dread aka Flo was asked how did The Upsessions find him his reply was "they found him running naked down the highway."..

Judge Dread (aka Alex Hughes), was an English reggae and ska musician. He was the first white recording artist to have a reggae hit in Jamaica, and the BBC has banned more of his songs than any other recording artist due to his frequent use of innuendo and double entendres.

The Guinness Book of World Records credited Judge Dread for having the highest number (eleven) of banned songs of all time. Several of his songs mentioned Snodland, the small town in Kent where Judge Dread lived. There is a road in the town of Snodland named after him, the Alex Hughes Close.

When Prince Buster had a big underground hit in 1969 with "Big 5", Hughes capitalised on it with the recording of his own "Big Six", based on Verne & Son's "Little Boy Blue", which was picked up by Trojan boss Lee Gopthal, and released on Trojan's 'Big Shot' record label under the stage name Judge Dread, the name taken from another of Prince Buster's songs. "Big Six" reached No. 11 in the UK Singles Chart in 1972, selling over 300,000 copies and spending six months on the chart, despite getting no radio airplay due to its lyrics. Further hit singles followed with "Big Seven" (co-written by Rupie Edwards) and "Big Eight" as well as "Y Viva Suspenders" and "Up with the Cock".

Folkestone Ska Fest wecomes the Prince Of Rudeness Judge Dread (aka Flo)
